

QUISITIVE TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS, INC.
WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

1. PURPOSE OF THIS POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to establish procedures for:

- a) the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by Quisitive Technology solutions, Inc., and its affiliates known as (“Quisitive” or the “Corporation”) regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing matters or violations to the Corporation’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics Policy (the “Code of Ethics”); and
- b) the submission by employees, full-time consultants, directors or officers of the Corporation, on a confidential and anonymous basis, of concerns regarding questionable accounting, auditing matters or violations to the Corporation’s Code of Ethics.

The purpose of this policy is also to state clearly and unequivocally that the Corporation prohibits discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation against any employee, full-time consultant, director or officer who (i) reports complaints to the Audit Committee regarding accounting, internal controls, auditing matters or violations of the Code of Ethics, or (ii) provides information or otherwise assists in an investigation or proceeding regarding any conduct that he or she reasonably believes to be a violation of employment or labour laws; securities laws (including the rules or regulations of the Ontario Securities Commission (the “OSC”), securities regulatory authorities in other provinces of Canada and applicable stock exchanges, and laws regarding fraud or the commission or possible commission of a criminal offence). Everyone at the Corporation is responsible for ensuring that the workplace is free from all forms of discrimination, harassment and retaliation prohibited by this policy. No employee, full-time consultant, director or officer of the Corporation has the authority to engage in any conduct prohibited by this policy.

This policy protects:

- a) any employee, full-time consultant, director or officer who legitimately and in good faith discloses an alleged violation of employment or labour laws, securities laws, laws regarding fraud or the commission or possible commission of a criminal offense, by any person with supervisory authority over the employee, full-time consultant, director or officer, or any other person working for the Corporation who has the authority to investigate, discover or terminate conduct prohibited by this policy;
- b) any employee, full-time consultant, director or officer who legitimately and in good faith files, causes to be filed, testifies, participates in, or otherwise assists in a proceeding filed under employment or labour laws, securities laws or laws regarding fraud;

- c) any employee or full-time consultant who legitimately and in good faith provides information, causes information to be provided, or otherwise assists in an investigation, regarding any conduct that the employee or full-time consultant reasonably believes constitutes fraud when the information or assistance is provided to or the investigation is conducted by law enforcement, regulatory authorities, a legislature, or the Corporation; or
- d) any employee or full-time consultant who in good faith submits any complaint to the Audit Committee regarding financial statements disclosures, accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing matters or violations to the Corporation's Code of Ethics in accordance with the procedures set out herein.

If an employee, full-time consultant, director or officer legitimately and in good faith engages in any of the activities listed above, the Corporation will not discharge, demote, suspend, threaten, harass or otherwise discriminate or retaliate against him or her in the terms or conditions of employment because of that activity. However, since such allegation of impropriety may result in serious personal repercussions for the target person or entity, the employee, full-time consultant, director or officer making the allegation of impropriety should have reasonable and probable grounds before reporting such impropriety and should undertake such reporting in good faith, for the best interests of the Corporation and not for personal gain or motivation.

retaliation in violation of this policy, the Corporation will take immediate and appropriate corrective action up to and including termination of that person's employment or contract.

- e) In the event that the investigation reveals that the complaint was frivolously made, or undertaken for improper motives, made in bad faith or without a reasonable and probable basis, that complainant's supervisor will take whatever disciplinary action may be appropriate in the circumstances.
